

THE PEACE POST

peace.

it does not mean to be in a place where there is no noise, trouble or hard work. it means to be in the midst of those things and still be calm in your heart.

(unknown)

Tuesday 8th July 2014 – SDIS held its annual Peace Prayer Day. The celebrations were held at the school courtyard. It was an amazing day with students of different races clad in colourful traditional outfits signifying unity in diversity.

THE EDITORS : YEAR 11

QUOTE OF THE DAY

I enjoyed the peace song conducted by Ms. Inderjit .
The representatives from MAKNA inspired me with their work.

Ms. Sukhbir

Everyone thinks I look like a bridegroom . What do you think?

Maha Ishernand Singh, ST5

Our lamps are different but the light is one.

Mr. Vemenna

Madam Jaswinder Kaur, our Principal stated "The day signified celebrating peace by embracing oneness and spreading cheer all around. Seeing students come together in their traditional attires and participate in this event as a whole generates happiness."

It was very lively, everyone looked good in their outfits. It was indeed a festival of diversity.

Mr. Rajinder

When the balloons were released into the sky, it made me feel really happy and at peace

Dheeraj Singh , Y1

There were several performances which involved students from Year 1 right up to Year 11 to enhance the day. The Year 6 rendered a song entitled Peace accompanied with students playing the harmonium, tabla and dhol along with Ms. Inderjit and Master Pradip leading them. Year 9 and 10 girls performed 'Just Stand Up' which was dedicated especially to cancer patients. The talented trio, Urmilla, Russell and Praveen Karan performed an original number with the parents, teachers and students joining in.

Representatives from MAKNA,

Dato' Dr Arunan Selvaraj and Mr. Vemenna Apanah were invited to grace this special occasion. Makna is a non-profit organization tasked to pool and utilise every effort to fight cancer and reduce pain among cancer patients. The Student Council took the opportunity to hand over a cash donation.

On a lighter note, Jaslin Kaur and Alvrinder Singh were emcees for the day. Who would have guessed that this pair could hold the fort so well? Kudos to the both of you for a job well done!

Peace to me means loving unconditionally and being prepared to see what is good in others and the world

*Ms. Priscilla,
SDIS Peace Ambassador*

So many colours today.
Am I walking through a rainbow?

Tirath Singh, Yr 11.

The finale for the day was spectacular. Students representing the various religious groups recited prayers during the interfaith-sharing. Year 7 led the audience to accompany them with the uplifting Michael Jackson's hit, We Are The World. Blue and White helium balloons were released into the sky. To wrap up the day, students were invited to place flowers at the Peace Pole.

PEACE GALLERY

